

Giulia Pentella

What we need is a truly sustainable design that improves the quality of life for all"

SKILLS

SOFTWARES/TOOLS

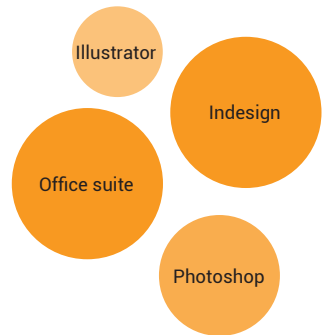

building performance analysis

architectural design

graphics and communication

BIOGRAPHY

Co-founder of SUMs architects, architect LEED AP BD+C - works on sustainable planning and bioclimatic architecture. She worked at Reinberg ZT GmbH and FontanaAtelier and from 2009 to 2015 she was an advisor for sustainability within the R&D team at MCA Mario Cucinella Architects. From 2013 to 2015 she was the executive director of the BGF Building Green Futures association to promote sustainable development in emergency contexts and in 2015 she was the Program Chair of the 31st edition of the international conference on Passive Low Energy Architecture (PLEA). She has been lecturer to numerous conferences, juries and post-graduate courses in Italy and abroad and the editor of several guidelines on sustainable and inclusive planning. She worked on urban regeneration projects funded by the Italian Cooperation as technical advisor and facilitator for local community participation process. She has published several articles on social and environmental responsibility of an architect with Franco Angeli Edizioni as a member of the InCreaSe research group.